Profile:

Being a Graphic Design graduate I'm an imaginative and creative thinker who thoroughly enjoys the challenge of problem solving; I'm highly motivated and enthusiastic, always striving for perfection. My strengths lie within conceptually led work, but typography and 3D aspects of design are also of high interest to me. I'm driven by the desire to add to and expand my existing knowledge and design skills, whilst at the same time gaining new experiences. I find design particularly engaging as it encompasses a huge variety of different areas, as well as providing incredible opportunities to learn about different things and gain new perspectives on the world.
